POLICY ALERT

Date: June 20, 2011
Reference: # TEXCAP 2011-03
To: Texas Commodity Assistance Program (TEXCAP) Contracting Entities
Subject: Claims Resolution Act of 2010 – Payments Received Via the Cobell Settlement
Effective Date: Immediately

Purpose

INFORM contracting entities that payments received via the Cobell v. Salazar (Cobell) settlement cannot be counted as income for program applicants and participants.

ADD Item 4221.2, Payments Received Via the Cobell Settlement, to your TEXCAP Handbook

Implementation

Immediately

Background

Cobell was a class action lawsuit filed by Native Americans regarding Indian land, funds and other assets held in trust by the federal government. A settlement in the lawsuit was reached in December 2009, and the Claims Resolution Act of 2010 was signed into law on December 8, 2010.

Procedure

Add the following to your TEXCAP Handbook:

4221.2, Payments Received Via the Cobell Settlement

The federal Claims Resolution Act of 2010 requires that monetary amounts received by an individual as a lump sum or a periodic payment from the Cobell settlement must not be counted as income in the month received for persons applying for or participating in TEXCAP.
