What is Financial Management: A Course for School Food Service Directors?

Financial Management: A Course for School Food Service Directors is a resource developed by the National Food Service Management Institute (NFSMI) to provide Food Service Directors with information to enable them to understand sound financial principals when operating the National School Lunch/School Breakfast Programs (NSLP/SBP).

What does the Financial Management: A Course for School Food Service Directors include?

The Financial Management: A Course for School Food Service Directors includes the following components:

- Financial Management Instructor Guide
- Financial Management Participant Workbook
- Financial Management: A Course for School Food Service Directors (CD-ROM) and includes the following in PDF format:
  - Instructor Guide and PowerPoint
  - Participant Workbook
  - Answer Sheets
- Financial Management for Food Service Directors: A Year in the Life of a Food Service Director (CD-ROM)
- Effective Financial Management Practices (2-hour satellite teleconference DVD)
- Elements of Effective Financial Management (2-hour satellite teleconference DVD)
- NFSMI Financial Management Information System (Booklet)

How do School Food Service Directors Obtain a Copy of the Financial Management: A Course for School Food Service Directors?

The Financial Management: A Course for School Food Service Directors is available in the Special Nutrition Programs (SNP) Nutrition Library. For information regarding this resource and other resources available at the SNP Nutrition Library, please visit http://www.snpnutritionlibrary.org and select “SNP Nutrition Library Catalog” from the menu on the left-hand side of the webpage.

Contact

If you have any questions please contact your Area Program Office.