School Breakfast Changes 2023-24 and 2024-2025 School Years

Starting September 1st, 2023* –
The 88th Texas Legislature allocated funding to cover the fee of reduced-price breakfast through the 2024-2025 school year.

* Reduced-price breakfasts served at no cost prior to September 1, 2023, will not be reimbursed by the state.

- Schools CAN use CNP funds to offset costs for serving reduced-price breakfasts.*
- Schools can also charge students up to $.30 per reduced price breakfast in August.
 - Must notify parents of the change if switching to no cost meals in September.

*or for paid breakfasts.... or for reduced-price lunch.

Texas School Responsibilities

- Communicate the no-cost benefit to parents via the Eligibility and Determination letter sent to parents or other mechanism.
- Ensure POS and other methods of charging students of meals are updated to ensure reduced-price students are no longer charged.
- Enter monthly claims in TX-UNPS, including the number of reduced-price breakfasts served.
- Ensure the site application lists the amount of reimbursement (up to $.30) that the school plans to receive per reduced-price breakfast.

Universal Breakfast

- Universal Breakfast sites operating under a universal free breakfast mandate will receive $.30 per reduced-price breakfast claimed, even though the site application will reflect $0 cost for reduced-price breakfasts.
- If the contracting entity would prefer to NOT receive the additional reimbursement, please fill out the Opt-Out Form found on www.SquareMeals.org/ReducedBreakfasts

Use of State Reimbursement

Reimbursement must accrue back to the nonprofit food service account and used for Program purposes, just as money received from a student would.
